

Men, Isn't Clothes Satisfaction What You're Looking For?

There is no doubt in the world but that it is. It's our iron clad rule to satisfy our customers in every respect. We must see that you are pleased with your purchase, or else we are willing and rather lose a sale than have you buy that which will not serve you.

First of all we desire to call your attention to the style and fit of our clothes. We can assure you that these important features will be admired—the style up to the minute, and the fit equal to tailor made.

Then comes the material and workmanship. This is where Service comes in. The best materials and tailoring skill are put into our garments.

Talk about colors and patterns, why we have them in such a large variety that any man's whims can be pleased.

These features combined help to make a value that you must pay from $5 to $10 more elsewhere.

So you see it's no wonder why we have the cream of the trade, when we offer such remarkable values for

GOVERNOR HATFIELD DECLARES FRIDAY, JUNE 20, LEGAL HOLIDAY IN WEST VIRGINIA

The Chief Executive Hopes That the Patriotic Sons and Daughters of the Little Mountain State Will Commemorate Its Fiftieth Anniversary—State Pride Is a Marked Characteristic of the West Virginian and Great Interest and Activity Are Being Shown Throughout the State In the Preparation of Attractive Exercises for the Day—The City of Wheeling Has Been Designated the Place for Holding the Official Celebration

GREAT SEAL OF THE STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA AND PICTURE OF GOV. H. D. HATFIELD DELIVERING HIS FAMOUS MESSAGE OVER THE TELEPHONE.

The people's representatives in the Assembly Hall directed that it would be suitable and appropriate to celebrate the Golden Anniversary of the State's Creation.

The 20th day of June, 1913, will mark half a century of time since West Virginia was assigned to a place in the grand constellation of States that go to form the North American Republic.

It is hoped that every citizen will join in the celebration of the Fiftieth Anniversary of the creation of our great State; born out of necessity in the throes of a great civil conflict involving a nation of people whose ancestors stood side by side on the field of battle and gave freely their lives and blood, which made it possible for the present generation to enjoy the products of their labor, and guarantee the rights of freemen. These noble efforts on the part of the Fathers of the Revolution, who loved no darkness, sophisticated no truth, nursed no delusions, allowed no fear, made possible a new Empire surpassing any other heretofore created, and dedicated it to liberty and equity.

The age of our Commonwealth is indeed a short span in the procession of the ages; yet in this brief time we can point with pride to our State as having arisen from poverty to a condition of material wealth unsurpassed in the same number of square miles—precious mineral wealth excepted—anywhere in the world, with a Government whose laws and institutions are the pride of our people.

The beauties of nature, with which our State abounds, have given to those who view her the inspiration of "the Switzerland of America;" a wonderland indeed, teeming with wealth, power and beauty.

The past fifty years have, by the genius of the past and present generations, woven a vast wilderness of twenty-four thousand, one hundred and seventy square miles into the fabric of civilization. The sons and daughters who made possible these great achievements can be found in the highest positions occupied by any people.

The celebration exercises will be arranged by the West Virginia Semi-Centennial Commission. The city of Wheeling, where West Virginia's statehood was founded, has been designated as the place where the official celebration will take place on June 20th, 1913. Arrangements are being made for state-wide observation of this day.

In view of the expressed will of the people through their regularly constituted representatives in body assembled, in memory of the patriotic and historic significance of the day, I, Henry D. Hatfield, Governor of the State of West Virginia, in pursuance of the authority vested in me, by law, do hereby designate and set apart Friday, the twentieth day of June, nineteen hundred and thirteen, to be regarded, treated and observed as a legal holiday, for the general cessation of all business, and for the assembling together of our citizens in a spirit of devotion, love, patriotism and admiration for our State and its past achievements, with fervent prayers for its future accomplishments. This will more surely guarantee a friendly relation between all classes of men, thereby making it an occasion to inculcate important lessons, which will be beneficial for the future of our State; which will strengthen us in those virtues by which alone our institutions and achievements can be perpetuated, and make possible a more successful future, as well as safeguard and perpetuate the results of fifty years of patient effort on the part of a devoted people to the welfare and uplift of their fellowmen.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, in the city of Charleston, on this the twenty-seventh day of May, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and thirteen, and in the fiftieth year of the State.

[SEAL] HENRY D. HATFIELD, By the Governor.

pidor. He explained that he bought the gun on the road from a man that he had never seen before shortly after the strike began last April. Attorney Knight wanted to know who told him to go to Mucklow hill to attack the town and where he got his ammunition for the gun. Seachrist said that he just happened along there and most of his ammunition he bought at Montgomery.

Committee to Its Feet.
At this point, two questions brought the committee to its feet and resulted in a ruling that the witness need not answer questions tending to incriminate him.

Attorney Knight wanted to know if Walter Diah had ordered Seachrist to go to Mucklow hill for the battle and if G. F. Parsons had furnished him and other men with ammunition. Neither question was answered. That made it apparent that the committee did not intend to place men in peril of prosecution by reason of their testimony before the committee.

To Prove Conspiracy.
Attorney Knight urged in vain that he expected to prove conspiracy involving men now present before the committee connected with the hill battle. The committee expected to keep down the list of witnesses as much as possible in order to shorten the hearings and the scores of miners who crowded the room although under subpoena, were not expected to be heard at length.

The committee hopes to conclude the hearing here this week.

Arrive on Scene.

CABIN CREEK JUNCTION, June 12.—From a special train that shuttled back and forth along Cabin creek the Senate mine strike investigating committee caught a few intimate glimpses of life where men have fought pitched battles incident to digging coal out of the hills for a living. Over a huge military map of the theater of war in West Virginia five United States senators, five flannel-shirted miners and five coal operators' lawyers planned the day's campaign.

Decora, where mine guards and strikers clashed, was the first point of Cabin creek visited. Kayford, Lee-wood, Acme and Eskdale where modern machinery

Guns Were Mounted, all mining camps, were on the program of the flying campaigners. In the Paint creek field the committee selected Kingston, Burnwell, Mucklow, three time the scenes of pitched battles, and Holly Grove, where striking miners went into camp as the points to be visited. For lack of time, it was expected that the committee might be forced to eliminate the visit to Paint creek points.

SOCIAL

For Mrs. Forbes.
Complimentary to Mrs. Forbes, of Larbert, Scotland, a visiting guest of Miss Jennie Wilson, Mrs. R. B. Willson entertained today at a most attractive 1 o'clock luncheon in her home on Carr avenue. The rooms were most elaborate in their floral decorations with clusters and bouquets of crimson ranunculus everywhere making a brilliant background for the beautifully appointed table, which had for its centerpiece a mound of Scotch heather. The place cards were artistic—ornaments in water color design of Scotch thistles, the national flower of Scotland, embellished with unique Scotch mottoes.

Long stemmed Killarney roses were given as favors to each guest and covers were laid for Mrs. Forbes, of Scotland, Mrs. John Koblegard, Mrs. Henry T. McClelland, Mrs. Holmes, Mrs. Alice Corpening, Mrs. Ella White, Mrs. Estelle Shuttleworth, Mrs. Frank Haymaker, the Misses Benedum and Miss Jennie Wilson.

Committee to Meet.
A meeting of the executive committee of the Missionary Society of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church, South, will be held at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening in the church.

Aid Society Meets.
The Methodist Protestant Aid Society met at the home of Miss Pansy Dawson in Haymond Heights Wednesday evening. The meeting was opened by Mrs. Windom in a scripture reading of the third chapter of John, prayer by Mrs. Windom, music by Miss Vera King and Miss Pansy Dawson. Some important business was transacted. The society plans to have

SCHOOL

Board and Superintendents Asked for by Alaska from Congress.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—A territorial board of education and two superintendents of schools are asked for by the Alaska legislature in a memorial just transmitted to Congress. The petition recites that although Alaska now has a white population of about 40,000 with 3,000 children attending the forty-two white public schools, "there is as yet no territorial board of education, examining board, or superintendents to govern such schools."

The legislature asks that the board of education be made up of the governor, secretary and treasurer of the territory, and that it appoint the two superintendents of schools. The board is to have power to grant territorial "educational diplomas," "life diplomas," and "first-grade certificates" to properly qualified teachers. It is specified, however, that normal school diplomas or state certificates from any of the states in the Union shall be accepted as satisfactory evidence to teach in the Alaskan schools.

Would-be teachers in Alaska are to be examined in much the same subjects as teacher in the various states—algebra, geography, history, etc., but particular stress is to be laid upon hygiene, "with special reference to the nature and effects of alcoholic drinks and other narcotics and stimulants upon the human system."

The action sought by the Alaska legislature from Congress is for the white schools only. The native schools in the territory are directly under the control of the national government, through the bureau of education.

PROGRAM

For State Funeral Directors' Convention is Being Prepared.

A meeting of the executive committee of the West Virginia State Funeral Directors' Association was held in the Clifford-Osborn undertaking establishment Wednesday night with John McCabe, of Grafton, president of the association, and the following members of the committee present: William G. Osborn and F. L. Wilson, of this city; G. T. Bartlett, of Grafton, and R. L. Cunningham, of Fairmont.

Plans for entertaining the visitors at the convention to be held here July 15, 16 and 17 were discussed and the following noted lecturers were engaged to deliver lectures: Prof. H. S. Reuben, of Philadelphia, and Dr. Andrew Wilson, of Wheeling. Prof. Reuben will give two lectures, the first will be a lecture and demonstration on "Ultra-Embalming." The second will be on "Primitive Preservation." Dr. Wilson will deliver an address on "Sanitation and Bacteriology," to which the public will be invited. Dr. Wilson is head of the health department of the city of Wheeling.

The full program of the convention will be announced in a few days.

THE CITY WATER TODAY

Subjoined is today's official report of the condition of the city water, in connection with which the city water works and sewerage board authorizes the following statement:

Among the chief advantages of our pure water is the control had of it. Just as a powerful horse under control is useful, so is the water we use. If the control of either be gone even for a time we are at once in great danger. New York has just learned this. Floods broke down part of its water system, uncontrolled flood water mixed with the purified water and fever at once broke out with many deaths. No surface, well water or flood water is really under control so beware of it.

Following is today's test for fever and other germs as made by Perkins Boynton:

ANALYSIS.
No. bacteria in 1.0 c. c.	Bacillus coli present in 0.1 c. c.	1.0 c. c.	10 c. c.

STRIKE ENDED.

Striking miners at the plant of the Righter Coal and Coke Company near Lost Creek returned to work Thursday morning after being out one and a half weeks demanding better wages, the trouble having been satisfactorily adjusted.

TO ATTEND.

Mrs. Catherine M. Flora will go this evening to Salem to attend the Salem College commencement which takes place tonight. Her sister, Miss Angelene M. Flora, is one of the graduates.

ATTENDS COMMENCEMENT.

The Rev. U. W. Morrison, pastor of the Methodist Protestant church here, is attending commencement exercises at Adrian College at Adrian, Mich. He is a member of the board of trustees of the college.

NOTE IS SENT.

BELGRADE, Serbia, June 12.—The Serbian government sent a note to the Bulgarian government today proposing that three-fourths of the army of Bulgaria and Serbia be demobilized to relieve the existing tension and to facilitate a settlement of the differences between the two governments.

SENT OUT OF CITY.

In police court this morning, which was conducted by Mayor Will H. Cole, two men were convicted of street drunkenness and fined the usual sums but they were penniless and in default of payment they were sent out of the city.

NEW PRESIDENT.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—John A. McIlhenny was today designated by President Wilson to be president of the civil service commission. Mr. McIlhenny was the only one of the old commissioners retained.

Grandma Talks About Babies

Has a large Circle of Listeners Who Profit by Her Wisdom and Experience.

In almost any settled community there's a grandma who knows Mother's Friend. Not only is she reminiscent of her own experience, but it was through her recommendation that so many young, expectant mothers derived the comfort and blessing of this famous remedy.

It is quickly and wonderfully penetrating, permits the muscles to expand without the strain on the ligaments, and prepares the system so thoroughly that the crisis is passed almost without the slightest distress. Thus there need be no such thing as dread or fear.

No better nor more cheering advice can be given the expectant mother than to suggest the use of Mother's Friend. She will take courage from the beginning. The days will be cheerful, the nights restful. Thus the health is preserved, the mind is in repose and the period is an unending one of quiet, joyful anticipation.

You can obtain Mother's Friend of any druggist at $1.00 a bottle. Do not forget to be supplied with this greatest remedy ever devised for motherhood. It is mailing. Write at once to Bradford Regulator Co., 233 Lantry Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their very interesting and instructive book of advice for expectant mothers.
